

I would like the do-not-call law to remain strong and on the books. It should also be applied to cell phones!! I pay per minute for my cell phone usage and unless I will be getting paid from those who would call me, only those whom I want to have my number should have access to it!!